

Invitation from Guy's and St Thomas' and Kings College Hospital to help improve Virtual Access to Care

	Virtual Access to Care We want to hear from people with a learning disability or their parents who have experienced Virtual Access to Care. This is when you have an appointment delivered by phone or online.
	London South Bank University is working with the NHS to bring together local people and health professionals.
	We want to hear from you if you had virtual access to care for any of these services: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• IBD</li><li>• Lung Disease</li><li>• HIV</li><li>• Trauma and Ortho</li><li>• Urology</li><li>• Renal</li></ul>
	We want to hear from lots of different people, including people with learning disabilities, about their experience with Virtual Access to Care.
	We want to talk to you about how we can improve Virtual Access to Care for patients.

We are holding discussions online and face-to-face at the moment.

You will receive an online voucher for attending the workshops.

If you would like to find out more or find out how you can get involved, you can email healthlab@lsbu.ac.uk
